

MARGARET SHUMAN

3965 Sans Souci CT
Clarkston, GA 30021

T 404-508-8318

shumanhw@aol.com
www.MargaretShuman.com

EDUCATION

M.A. in Speech/Theatre; Bowling Green State University, OH

- Teaching assistantship in Speech 101
- Graduate level classes: Teaching Writing; Metaphysical Literature

B.A. in English/Secondary Education; Berry College, GA

- Majors in English and German
- State of GA renewable 7-12 teaching certificate

EMPLOYMENT

Hybrid Education Instructor: 1998-present

- Offer four lit/comp classes: AP Lit, AP Lang, Contemporary Lit, British Lit
- Track students' individual progress through online and personal communication
- Organize and staff panel discussions on education topics for parents in Atlanta

Copy Editor: 1991-present

- Consultant/copy editor for three book publishers
- Editor for weekly, monthly, and quarterly newsletters and other publications

Drama Director: 1991-1998

- Led Atlanta church's adult theatre program
- Participated and presented at regional and national theatre conferences

Traditional School Instructor: 1982-1990

- Taught in public, boarding, and private high schools
- Led seminars in speech and AP course development at professional teacher conferences
- Taught high school literature, speech, drama, writing, and grammar classes
- Directed one to three full-length theatre productions per year, utilizing community resources
- Integrated professionals from the Atlanta community into the classroom
- Led steering committee for SACS accreditation

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Four week-long AP English summer seminars offered by College Board
- Twenty staff development units in fine arts at Atlanta Arts Alliance

PERSONAL

- Homeschooled son K-12; he graduated from GA Tech's College of Computing in 2014
- Follows discussions of accreditation, national education trends, college expectations